Print your own flyer

Brill is delighted to announce a new feature on its website: the print your own flyer button. For each book and journal it is now possible to download your personal PDF-flyer directly from the website.

It takes only a single click on the “Print flyer” button of a book’s or journal’s web page to create the flyer. You can choose to save the flyer on your computer or open the flyer in your PDF viewer so you can read it, forward it electronically and print it. This easy-to-go flyer can be used to promote your own book, or to recommend it to your librarian, customers and other interested parties.

Here is how it goes:

2) Click the “Print Flyer” button at the bottom of the blurb text.

A pop up window will ask you whether you would like to save or open the PDF file.
4) This is how the flyer will look like:

Ibn Ḥazm of Cordoba
The Life and Works of a Controversial Thinker

Edited by Camilla Adang, Tel Aviv University, Maribel Fierro, CSIC, Madrid and Sabine Schmidtkne, Freie Universität Berlin

This volume represents the state of the art in research on the controversial Muslim legal scholar, theologian, and man of letters Ibn Ḥazm of Cordoba (d. 436/1046), who is widely regarded as one of the most brilliant minds of Islamic Spain. Remembered mostly for his charming treatise on love, he was first and foremost a fierce polemicist who was much criticized for his idiosyncratic views and his abusive language. Insisting that the sacred sources of Islam are to be understood in their outward sense and that it is only the Prophet Muhammad whose example may be followed, Ibn Ḥazm alienated himself from his peers. As a result, his books were burned and he was forced to withdraw from public life.

Contributors are: Camilla Adang, Hassan Ansari, Samuel-Martin Behleu, Alfonso Carmona, Leigh Chipman, Maribel Fierro, Alejandro García Sanjuán, Livnat Holtzman, Samir Kaddouri, Joep Lange, Christian Lange, Gabriel Martinez Gros, Luis Molina, Salvador Peña, Jose Miguel Puerta Vilche, Rafael Ramón Guerrero, Adam Sabra, Sabine Schmidtkne, Delfina Serrano, Bruna Soravia, Dominique Urvoy, Kees Vennsteeg and David Wasserman.

Readership: All those interested in Islamic intellectual history (Arabists and Historians), the history of al-Andalus, the history of the Iberian Peninsula during Middle Ages, the history of Islamic theology and law, as well as interreligious relations.

For more information see brill.com/ibn-arm-cordoba

5) You can now send the flyer electronically by email, save it to your computer, or print the flyer. When using the flyer electronically, you can click on all links to go to the relevant webpages directly.