BRILL

Instructions for Authors

Scope

Multisensory Research (MSR) is an interdisciplinary archival journal covering all aspects of multisensory processing including the control of action, cognition and attention. Research using any approach to increase our understanding of multisensory perceptual, behavioural, neural and computational mechanisms is encouraged. Empirical, neurophysiological, psychophysical, brain imaging, clinical, developmental, mathematical and computational analyses are welcome. Research will also be considered covering multisensory applications such as sensory substitution, crossmodal methods for delivering sensory information or multisensory approaches to robotics and engineering. Short communications and technical notes that draw attention to new developments will be included, as will reviews and commentaries on current issues. Special issues dealing with specific topics will be announced from time to time. Multisensory Research is a continuation of Seeing and Perceiving: A Journal of Multisensory Science, and of Spatial Vision.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

Please note that submission of an article for publication in any of Brill's journals implies that you have read and agreed to Brill's Ethical and Legal Conditions. The Ethical and Legal Conditions can be found here: brill.com/downloads/conditions.pdf.

Online Submission

Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at editorialmanager.com/msrbrill.

First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested.

When you register, select e-mail as your preferred method of contact. Upon successful registration, you will receive an e-mail message containing your Username and Password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "Send Username/Password" link in the login section, and enter your first name, last name and email address exactly as you had entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the 'Instructions for Authors'. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files.

A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Authors also have the opportunity to suggest and oppose reviewers by submitting the names and (e-mail) addresses.

Instructions for Authors

Supplementary Media / Data Files

To support and enhance your manuscript, MSR accepts electronic supplementary material, including supporting applications, high-resolution images, background datasets, sound or video clips, large appendices, data tables and other items that cannot be included in the article PDF itself. Authors should submit the material in electronic format together with the other manuscript files and supply a concise and descriptive caption for each file. In order to ensure that your submitted material is directly usable, please provide the data in one of the broadly accepted file formats for video, audio, etc. and limit the file size (e.g., for video: max. 3 GB). Supplementary files supplied will be published online at FigShare (www.figshare.com), to which reference is made in the published article on Brill Online Books and Journals, and vice versa.

File Formats

Most popular formats are allowed for the initial submission, as long as an editable source file (i.e., Word or LaTeX document) is included. Figures must be in digital format. Please refer to 'Figures' further in this document for more detailed instructions.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Editors; Laurence Harris – harris@yorku.ca; Marc Ernst – marc.ernst@uni-ulm.de.

For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

When submitting a manuscript, please note:

- The editorial board tries to keep the reviewing process as short as possible and to inform the author of the final decision (accept/reject/revise) within two months of submission, whenever possible.

Submission Requirements

Language

Manuscripts should be written in English. Spelling (British or American) should be consistent throughout.

Manuscript Structure

Contributions should be typed with numbered pages, 1.5 or double line spacing and wide margins throughout.

Instructions for Authors

The first page of an article should contain the title of the paper, the name(s) and address(es) of the author(s), a short title (not exceeding 50 characters, spaces included), and the name, e-mail address and postal address of the author to whom correspondence and proofs should be sent.

The manuscript title should be given in roman (The Title of the Manuscript), with capitals for the first letter of main words and should be as brief and informative as possible.

Authors' names should be in roman type as normally used by the author, first name followed by family name, names separated by commas and between the last two names by 'and', references to institutes and addresses as superscripts (e.g. ¹, or ^{1,2} in ascending order).

Affiliation: the institute where the work has been done should be indicated under the authors in roman type, first letters of major words in capitals. When the authors are based at different organizations this should be indicated in superscript in front of the institute (e.g. ¹Centre for Spatial Vision Sciences – corresponding to the references under 'authors').

E-mail addresses of corresponding authors may be added as footnotes.

Summary and Keywords

Each article should be accompanied by a summary in English, which should mention all the principal facts and conclusions set forth in the paper. A similar summary in another relevant language may be added, but this is not required. The word limit for the summary is 250.

Three to eight keywords should be given.

Headings

Main headings in bold (Summary, Introduction, Material and methods, Results, Discussion, Acknowledgements, References or other variants if appropriate), capitals only for first letter of sentence and first letters proper names, separated by white lines from text.

Second level headings in italics, flush left, capitals only for first letter of sentence and first letters proper names, separated by white lines from text. Sub-subheadings in roman type, aligned to the left, capitals only for first letter of sentence and first letters proper names, separated by a white line from preceding text, following text starting on next line.

Italics should only be used for scientific species names, words that need to be emphasized (no italics for: e.g., i.e., etc., cf.) and for mathematical and statistical variables such as p, F, U, T, N, r, but not for SD (standard deviation), SE (standard error), DF (degrees of freedom) and NS (non-significant).

Bold should only be used in exceptional cases of extra emphasis or in some formulas.

Instructions for Authors

Capitals should only be used for first letters of sentences, first letters proper names and first letters of specific words (e.g. tables, figures, experiments, behaviour patterns) that should be emphasized; small capitals for words that should be printed in capitals.

Mathematics

Detailed mathematical discussion should be placed in an appendix.

Units of measurement, abbreviations and symbols should follow the international system of units (SI). Equations and formulae should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals in parentheses on the right-hand side of the page.

References

The Harvard system should be used for the references. In this system, names and dates are given in the body of the text and an alphabetical list of references given at the end of the manuscript in a reference list.

Text Citations

References in the text should give the author's surname with the year of publication in parentheses. When reference is made to a work by two authors, both names should be given; references to works by more than two authors should give the name of the first author, followed by et al., e.g. Smith et al. (1973). If several papers by the same author(s) in the same year are cited, a, b, c, etc. should be placed after the year of publication, e.g. Smith and Jones (1982a, b).

Instructions for Authors

PhD (MSc, MD, etc.) Thesis

Vighetto, A. (1980). Etude neuropsychologique et psychophysique de l'ataxie optique, Thèse médecine, Lyon.

If a publication is in press, the reference should be made as complete as possible, stating the name of the journal and adding "in press".

Figures and Tables

References to tables should consist of the complete word, first letter capital (also in the middle of a sentence or in brackets) + number in Arabic numerals: Table 7 or (Table 7).

References to figures should consist of the complete word only at the beginning of a sentence and in the figure captions; otherwise the abbreviations "Fig." or "Figs" are used.

Tables should be kept as simple as possible with at least 3 horizontal lines and additional lines if appropriate, data ordered in a convenient way. The title should give all details that are needed to understand the table except obvious footnotes.

Figures should be submitted as separate source files in .eps, .tif, or .jpg format, in a size suitable for the typesetting area of the journal which is 125 x 195 mm. The resolution of these files should be at least 300 dpi for half-tone figures, and 600 dpi for line drawings. Number the files, and indicate in the manuscript where they are to appear (Fig. 1 here).

The text in a figure must be legible, and should not be smaller than corps 7. The size of this lettering for any text in a figure should be the same for all figures in the manuscript.

Greyscale graphics must be provided as monochrome images. There is no charge for full colour images or figures in either the print or electronic edition.

To guarantee good resolution in printing, colour figures must be original TIF or EPS (no PDF) files with a minimal resolution of 300 dpi for half-tone figures, and 600 dpi for line drawings and in full colour (i.e., CMYK and not RGB format). Diagrams, maps, drawings, charts, and photographs should be free of charge and copyright, or permission for publication has to be obtained from the original copyright owner(s).

Figure captions should not be attached to the figures, but should be included as a separate page at the end of the manuscript.

Abbreviations

Abbreviations should be followed by '.' unless the abbreviation is written with the last letter of the original word at the end position (thus: i.e. – e.g. – cf. – etc. but Eds – Dr – edn – Figs) – measures (such as mm cm m s l) without '.'.

Quotations

Use single quotation marks (') for isolated words or conceptions, double (") for literal quotes.

Instructions for Authors

Copyright

The use of general descriptive names, trademarks, etc., in this publication, even if the former are not specifically identified, is not to be taken as a sign that such names are exempt from the relevant protective Instructions to Authors' laws and regulations and may accordingly be used freely by anyone.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to each author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be corrected and returned to the managing editor as quickly as possible.

E-Offprints

A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO yellow publisher. The Author retains the right to self-archive the submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. The submitted version of an article is the author's version that has not been peer-reviewed, nor had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). The Author retains the right to self-archive the accepted (peer-reviewed) version after an embargo period of 24 months. The accepted version means the version which has been accepted for publication and contains all revisions made after peer reviewing and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher's lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website (brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/self-archiving-rights).

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright

By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.
