

Brill's Highlights in African Studies

Journal of African Archaeology

Edited by Sonja Magnavita, Peter Breunig and Sam Nixon

The Journal of African Archaeology is an international peer-reviewed periodical. It publishes original papers addressing recent research and developments in African archaeology and related disciplines. The journal's main purpose is to provide scholars and students with a new pan-African forum for discussing relevant topics on the cultural dynamics of past African societies.

Forthcoming Series: Journal of African Archaeology Monograph Series

The Journal of African Archaeology Monograph Series is a supplement to the Journal of African Archaeology. It offers a platform for more extensive contributions such as research monographs, refereed conference proceedings and other collections that do not fit the Journal's scope.

Journal of African Military History

Editors: Roy Doron, Winston-Salem State University, and Charles G. Thomas, US Air Command and Staff College

Volume 1 planned for 2017.

The Journal of African Military History (JAMH) is an international, peer-reviewed journal that publishes historical scholarship on war and society in Africa. The journal is particularly interested in exploring the issues of conflict, military and society relations, and social histories of the human experience during wartime. JAMH presents a new outlet in the study of military matters in Africa and the connections between military matters in Africa and the diaspora. This journal is an important new forum for historical researchers to connect their work to the broader fields of African History and Military History.

Sheikh Ahmadu Bamba: Selected Poems

Edited with an Introduction, Commentary, and Notes by Sana Camara, Truman State University

While in exile in Gabon (1895–1902), Sheikh Ahmadu Bamba marked a historic moment with his poetry of resilience, pivotal to the cultural and religious transformation of the Murids of Senegal. The qaṣā'id (poems) included in this annotated edition reveal a unifying poetic purpose and exemplify Šūfī literary traditions in subject matter, form, and versification.

The Acquisition of Africa (1870-1914)

The Nature of International Law

Mieke van der Linden, Max Planck Institute of Comparative Public Law and International Law

In the 'Scramble for Africa' during the Age of New Imperialism (1870-1914), European States and non-State actors mainly used treaties to acquire territory. The question is raised whether Europeans did or did not on a systematic scale breach these treaties in their expansion of empire.
