Instructions for Authors

Scope

The Journal of the Economic and Social History of the Orient (JESHO; brill.com/jesh) contains studies extending our knowledge of the economic and social history of what was once labeled as the Orient: the Ancient Near East, the World of Islam, and South, Southeast, and East Asia. Apart from in-depth regional studies, the Journal stimulates comparisons and connections across these regions and across the various “Mediterranean” world-economies of the Indian Ocean area at large. Chronologically, the journal extends over the period from ancient times until the beginning of the nineteenth century. However, the journal also encourages contributions that investigate longer-term historical developments that originate earlier but flow into the twentieth century and/or into the present. The journal seeks contributions by economic and social historians, historians of law and administration, philologists, geographers, anthropologists, archaeologists, theoretical sociologists, and other social scientists. In addition, it challenges scholars to (re)connect cultural and literary history, the history of ideas, mentalities and gender to economic and social history analysis. JESHO encourages source-oriented research that combines linguistic expertise with a renewed sensitivity for aspects of agency, discourse and texture. Published since 1958, the Journal of the Economic and Social History of the Orient is the oldest and most respected journal in its field.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

Please note that submission of an article for publication in any of Brill’s journals implies that you have read and agreed to Brill’s Ethical and Legal Conditions. The Ethical and Legal Conditions can be found here: brill.com/downloads/conditions.pdf.

Online Submission

JESHO now uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/jesh. First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the ‘Register Now’ link in the login menu. Enter the information requested. When you register, select e-mail as your preferred method of contact. Upon successful registration, you will receive an e-mail message containing your Username and Password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the ‘Send Username/Password’ link in the login section, and enter your first name, last name, and e-mail address exactly as you had entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you. Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the ‘Instructions for Authors’. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files.
Instructions for Authors

A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor’s request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

Double-blinded Peer Review

JESHO uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page, which includes the full title of the manuscript plus the names and complete contact details of all authors. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymised.

File Format

Please upload source files such as .doc, and not .pdf files. For figure files, see p. 6 of these instructions.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript, please contact the Editor by e-mail at: paolo.sartori@oeaw.ac.at.

For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

Language

Contributions may be written in English, French, or German. Spelling in English (British or American) should be consistent throughout.

Length

Manuscripts should not normally exceed 10,000 words exclusive of the bibliography.

Font

Notes about fonts and any non-standard fonts must also be submitted.

Manuscript Structure

The text must be formatted with 1.5-inch margins and be double-spaced.
Instructions for Authors

Abstract and Keywords:
Abstracts in English and French, should not exceed 100 words, and should accompany each submission. Five keywords (in English) should be included with the abstracts.

Headings
Headings are as follows:

1. The First Level Heading

The text.

1.1. The Second Level Heading

The text.

Capitalization
Authors should be consistent in their use of capitalization. Overcapitalization should be avoided. The abbreviations ‘vol.,’ ‘no.,’ and ‘pt.’ are not normally capitalized.

Italics
The titles of works and periodicals should normally be italicized. Foreign words should only be italicized if there is risk of confusion with an identically spelled English word; if the word is being cited by the author; or if the word is likely to be unfamiliar to readers (in this last case, only the first appearance of the word in the text should be italicized). Latin scholarly terms and abbreviations (with the exception of sic) are not italicized.

Transliteration System for Arabic-Script Languages
For Arabic, Ottoman Turkish and Persian, JESHO uses a slightly modified IJMES system. Authors should thus refer to the comprehensive transliteration chart available at:
web.gc.cuny.edu/ijmes/docs/TransChart.pdf.
As a general rule Persian must be transliterated according to the IJMES system, not that of the Encyclopedia Iranica, so i and u must be used, not e and o. Note that ta marbuta is rendered a in Persian. The unmarked iḍāfa is indicated by –i; the iḍāfa marked with yā is indicated by –yi. All waws are transliterated with w and not v.

For Ottoman Turkish, authors may either transliterate or use modern Turkish orthography as in the Redhouse Turkish/Ottoman-English Dictionary (1st edn Istanbul 1968). In distinction to the Redhouse dictionary, JESHO has the following rules: The letter ʿayn is represented by ʿ throughout, and the letter hamza is represented in the middle or end of a word by ‘ (e.g. ‘ulema’). JESHO does not use hatted vowels (e.g. â).
Instructions for Authors

Indentation
Authors should use tabs for the indentation of paragraphs.

Bibliography
In both the social sciences format and the humanities format, a list of references cited must be supplied at the end of the manuscript, in the form of a bibliography.

When the bibliography lists several works by the same author, his or her name should not be repeated.
For works with more than one author, the names should always be listed in the order in which they appear on the title page. In the bibliography, only the first name is inverted.

Only the major relevant place of publication should be listed.
When using page numbers, the second number is abbreviated to include only the changed part of the first number (e.g., 3-10; 107-8; 415-532).
If a doi number is available for a journal article, please insert it.
Non-Roman scripts may be used in those instances where necessary, such as in the titles of published works or in terms and textual references where transliteration into Roman script is impossible or inadequate.

All abbreviations used must be explained at the top of the bibliography.

The bibliography should contain all references cited in the manuscript in the following form:

If there is more than one work published by the same author, these works should be listed in chronological sequence.
If there is more than one work published by the same author in the same year, these works should be distinguished by an 'a', 'b', 'c', etc. after the year (the order of the works determined by the alphabetical order of the titles): Doe, John J. 1992a. Early Tools. JESHO 14: 32-42.

Bibliographical References and Footnotes
Either of two style formats for references and footnotes may be followed, the social sciences format or the humanities format.

Social Sciences Format: References
References in the text should be in the form (Author Year: Page number), e.g. (Smith 1992: 12).
Instructions for Authors

References normally appear after the punctuation of a sentence. Page numbers must be included when referencing a specific idea or information set; if the reference is to a work in general, however, it should take the form: (Author Year). Footnotes should be used sparingly and only to clarify points briefly.

Humanities Format: Footnotes

Footnotes are used to explain points and to give references, in the following form:

If a reference in a footnote has already been mentioned previously, the footnote should give the surname and a brief title only: Doe, The Book: 23 or Doe, "The Article": 45.

Works with more than three authors, the footnote citation should give the name of the first-listed author followed by ‘et al.’ or ‘and others’ without intervening punctuation.

Series information included in the bibliography can be omitted from footnotes.

Figures

All figures and tables must be cited consecutively in the text. Photographs, diagrams, charts, maps, plans, and other line drawings should be submitted as separate source files in .eps, .tif, or .jpg format, in a size suitable for the typesetting area of the journal. The resolution of these files should be at least 300 dpi for half-tone figures, and 600 dpi for line drawings. Number the files, and indicate in the manuscript where they are to appear (Fig. 1 here).

The text in a figure must be legible, and should not be smaller than corps 7. The size of this lettering for any text in a figure should be the same for all figures in the manuscript.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to the author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned promptly.
Instructions for Authors

E-Offprints
A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to each author. Brill is a RoMEO green publisher.
Authors are allowed to post their submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. This is the author’s own version that had not yet been peer-reviewed, or had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). Authors may post the accepted (peer-reviewed) version of their article 24 months after publication. This is the version accepted for publication, which contains all revisions made after peer review and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher’s lay-out. The publisher’s lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website.

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright
By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access
Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons licence in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open, Brill’s Open Access Model, and the Brill Open Consent to Publish Form can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
